President's Message Augusta 2012 Robin Brigmon

We had a successful Rosh Hashanah at Congregation Children of Israel (CCI) last week. Thanks to Rabbi Klensin for organizing great services, Mark Dickens and our outstanding choir for the beautiful music, and of course our talented Cantorial Soloist, Joanne Greene, who blessed us with her beautiful voice. We appreciate all the volunteers who helped including the Brotherhood and Sisterhood. As I said during my speech, this is our 166th year of having services at CCI in Augusta. I read some excerpts from Jack Steinberg's book on the rich history of CCI that evening. For example, CCI has been donating money to our brothers and sisters in Israel (or Palestine as it was referred to previously) since 1852. CCI has demonstrated much resiliency over the years while the membership went through wars, floods, earthquakes, recessions and the depression. CCI has always had a strong commitment to the community, service, and social action with strong leadership who have strived for excellence and believed in working for the future. We have much to be proud of but of course the future is now.

We are currently preparing for Yom Kippur, the holiest day of the year (Sept. 25-26), please consider this crucially important request: I did send out a High Holy Day Appeal to assist CCI in these tight financial times. We currently wish to replace our two aging sound systems at the Temple. Those of you who attend services regularly know of some of the problems we have had with the sound system in the sanctuary, with our first estimate @ $4,000. In addition the sound system in the lounge is also in need of replacement. We also need to have an independent assessment of our CCI finances, which can cost up to $6,000 for the multiple accounts. Any contributions would be much appreciated.

We now have an active Youth Group, thanks to the efforts of Rabbi Klensin, dedicated parents, and a great group of teenagers. We also have a new youth group director, Ms. Victoria Resnick. Ms. Resnick is a military veteran (language specialist), who is now attending Augusta State University. They all ready have several trips and activities planned.

Our CCI Clean-up day worked out wonderfully last month, with a Temple full of volunteers! Thanks to all who came out and raked, power washed, sorted, polished, repaired, cleaned (inside & out), trimmed, and schlepped with love. We appreciated Brotherhood that provided the bagels and snacks. It was hard work but a lot of fun and CCI looked great for the Holy Days! We will have another Clean up Day on November 18 for those who missed the last one.

Wishing all of you and your loved ones a sweet, healthy and happy New Year.
 Shalom, Robin

Editorial by Marc Gottlieb

The year I was Confirmed, a few years after my Bar Mitzvah, I took a vow not to buy, wherever possible, anything German and not to visit Deutschland....ever. When I started getting involved in Holocaust Remembrance activities I added that I would not utter Hitler's name in any Temple or facility that was hosting a program I was involved with. To this day, fifty two years later, I can say that I have kept those vows.

It was not always easy. My father drove a Mercedes Benz and my sister along with her husband owned a Volkswagen repair service.

After all these years I have new reasons to continue to adhere to these decisions. Once again a German district court has shown just how crass and bigoted they can be. They issued a court ruling that equated circumcision with doing illegal bodily harm to newborn males. In one act they not only offended the miniscule German Jewish population but also succeeded in insulting the Arab Islamic community for they too observe the practice of circumcision as a symbol of the relationship between Man and God.

Some, in Germany, may not have any contact with Jews or Muslims and therefore feel alienated from them. There seems to be, however, a real covert need among a sizable part of the German population to attack the practices of minority religions. The Wall Street Journal reflected that Chancellor Angela Merkel has urged quick action in overturning the local legislation saying Germany would be the world's "laughing stock" if it were to stifle Jews from practicing their religion. I personally don't care if they are laughing stocks, but more importantly religious practices of minority religions should not be controlled in any way by the state.

I would, in fact, let this situation go except for the actuality that over the last few years there have been similar legal attempts, mainly in California, to create similar legislation. The legislation there, also in the guise of worries about the health and welfare of the newborn male are blatant attempts to pass anti-Semitic rulings. The main progenitor of the California legislation is a known Holocaust denier and writer of anti-Semitic tracts.

We in America cannot afford to let any religion, no less minority ones, including Islam, be the brunt of legislation. We must be tolerant of others' religion and we must finally, once and for all, be educated to other's practices and not let bigots and extremists have their legislative ways.

Please join us on

RABBINIC REFLECTIONS

I was gratified by the good feelings that filled our sanctuary during our High Holy Day Services. It was wonderful sharing the holidays with you. I felt a real coming together of our congregation and look forward to an exciting year working with our Temple President, Robin Brigmon, the other officers, the entire board, the Sisterhood, Brotherhood, Youth Group, and all of you. It was wonderful to have our past presidents on the bema during the Kol Nidre Service, with the Torah Scrolls being held by Robin Brigmon, Marc Gottlieb, Elliot Price and Meryl Alalof, and hearing the inspiring Kol Nidre chanted by Jack Goldenberg. It was fantastic to see so many of our teenagers at the services and coming up together for an Aliyah. The music during the services was beautiful and deeply moving, thanks to our Choir Director and Accompanist, Mark Dickens, Cantorial Soloist Joanne Greene, and the members of our choir. They worked long and hard preparing all the music for the services. The Oneg Yom Tov and Break Fast were lovely, giving us a chance to socialize following the services. Having our very successful Bone Marrow Registry Drive, coordinated by Suzanne Shapiro and Sandra Freedman, on the Sunday between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, added real meaning to our High Holy Day observance. I look forward to sharing an active, exciting and meaningful year with you. I hope to see you at our Simchat Torah service on Sunday evening, October 7 and throughout the year at services, our educational and social programs, and other Temple events.

Rabbi Robert Klensin

Books and Bears

A Girl Scout Gold Award Project

Have any elementary-school age books or stuffed animals that you are thinking about giving away?

I am collecting these items as part of my Girl Scout Gold Award to increase the love of literacy at Jenkins-White Elementary School - a charter school in downtown Augusta.

If you have any of these items that you would like to donate, please bring them any Sunday morning to Religious School or leave them at the CCI office and I will pick them up.

Or, call me at 706-228-1671 to arrange a meeting time for pick up or drop off of items. Thank you so much!!

Rachel Helling

Suzanne,

You deserve all the thanks! I had a wonderful time working with you, Sandra and the great group of volunteers you assembled to assist us at yesterday's marrow drive. I know in my heart that your efforts reached far more people than the 52 that joined the registry at yesterday's marrow drive. Because of you, many people heard about Be The Match for the very first time and will be moved to join the registry the next time they hear about a Be The Match event. You are such a joy to work with, and I would love nothing more than to do this again with you next year. I am honored that I was able to help you fulfill your dream. I can't thank you enough for the awesome job you did, especially with the local media, to make this event a success. If I can assist you in any way, please do not hesitate to call on me. I look forward to working with you on next year's marrow drive. May God continue to bless you!

BROTHERHOOD NEWS Arthur Miller, President

It is October already. We had our Installation Service last month. Your Brotherhood wishes to break new ground. We will need your help. Our new dues structure has been acclaimed as a good start. So far this year our membership is better than last year. Our aim is to have 50 members signed up. We would like you not to delay sending in yours before the end of the month. The new dues schedule is:

Basic	$ 36.00
Maccabee	$ 54.00
Aaron	$ 72.00
David	$ 90.00
Moses	$108.00

Our plans for October 19th is to hold a Brotherhood Service. You will be asked to do a small reading. Our intention is to have a Grade A participation. Please advise me if you want to do anything special. Please E-Mail the details millarthur@comcast.net. We will do our very best to assign you the part you would like to do.

Other dates to look forward to is our Deli Nite, Purim and Hanukkah. These are fun things to do. Everyone attending has raved.

Our aim is to have as short a business meeting as possible. This will give us the time to enjoy each others company. I would like to know if you would like us to have any specific program

REMEMBER OUR MEETING OUR ON THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH. STARTING TIME IS 10:15 AM.

Remember You may also pay your Brotherhood dues on-line by simply going to:

SISTERHOOD NEWS Jeanie Brody, President

Sisterhood had their opening luncheon meeting on September 14, 2012, with a paid up membership luncheon followed by entertainment by Saharan Silouettes. The Oneg Yom Tov was lovely and we are preparing for break the fast at the conclusion of Yom Kippur. The concert week-end with Joy Katzen-Guthrie as well as the Chanukah dinner will both be events that Sisterhood will be providing refreshments for. Our next Sisterhood meeting will be Wednesday, October 17, 2012, with the speaker being the manager of the Lydia Project.

Jeanie Brody, President

Shalom,

Your Augusta Jewish Community Sunday School (AJCSS) is on its way to another wonderful year full of fun and Jewish learning. Our fellow, Reva Frankel, with the Goldring/Waldenberg ISJL Education Fellow from Jackson, Mississippi is preparing for a visit each semester. She will be providing ISJL curriculum tips, exciting events such as a Havdalah service, Divar Torahs, and is making plans for another visit the week of December 14-16, 2012. Her understanding of the ISJL resources and her personal commitment to Judaism has been an asset to our AJCSS. It promises to be a enriching time.

If you are not involved with our AJCSS, please have your child attend one of our classes. The energy our teachers bring while teaching Jewish content is contagious. Each grade focuses on 10 areas – Community, Mitzvot and Jewish Values, Symbols, God, Hebrew and Prayer, Israel, Jewish History, Jewish Holidays, Culture, and Jewish Lifecycle Events.

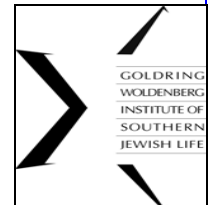

Our goal is to make Jewish learning fun and rewarding.

Our thanks for Elliot Sons Funeral Home for the Jewish calendars they provide for us each year. New calendars for the new Jewish year, 5773, have arrived. Copies are available on the table in the Platzblatt Lounge.

Through the years, all that's changed is our ability to do even more.

Elliot Sons Funeral Home has proudly served the community for over 100 years.

From the beginning, our goal has been to do as much as we can to help families, neighbors and friends through their deepest sorrows. Our affiliation with the Dignity Memorial® network allows us to build on that tradition by offering many exclusive benefits. As a result, we're finding that more and more people are turning to us to help them plan their final arrangements. To learn more about the helpful services we offer, call or visit any of our funeral homes.
