The Casino Night was a success thanks to Lauren Jolles and those who helped sell tickets, volunteered for the event, and all of you coming out to have a good time and support CCI. We also had a great Passover Seder. Steve Nathan and his Religious Practice Committee did a great job working with Rabbi Klensin preparing for the Seder. There were over 70 people and food was good thanks to Ila and all her helpers. You all have received the revised Constitution that we will vote on at the annual meeting on June 2. Congregants can respond with comments to Steve before the meeting. Thanks to Constitution Committee Chair Steve Nathan and previous committee chair Marc Gottlieb for their hard work on this.

I appreciate those who came out for my daughter Jessica's talk on immigration on March 31. It was a great time and after her talk there was around 30 minutes of discussion after which I actually had to break off! The Sisterhood and Brotherhood prepared a delicious brunch including wonderful matzo brei. While Jessica did a wonderful job explaining the challenges and complexities of US Immigration Law, she also made some thought provoking analogies. Bet you never thought of Superman as an illegal alien (came to earth undocumented) and his parents, the Kents, as criminals (hid the fact Superman was an illegal alien), and Superman committed repeated offenses (left and came back to the US repeatedly without documentation)!

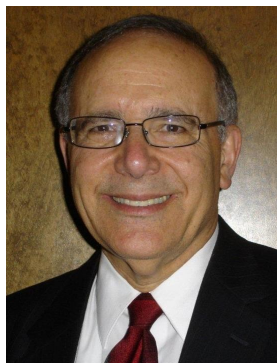

Yesterday I worked with Elliot Price and volunteers from Kohl's Department Store helping Shirley Christie work providing food and goodwill to the Bethlehem Community at the Bethlehem Community Gardens. This is a great social action project led by Shirley that many at CCI have contributed to in recent years. I sat down and relaxed after working on a nice garden bench built by Mort Wittenberg and installed by Elliot and his son Jay. There were also community volunteers who came by to help work in the garden to feed the hungry, and help the needy. Next weekend Elliot will be leading many volunteers from the religious school who will be weeding the garden, cleaning the area, and building both a structure and compost. Kohl's will be working as well in support of this Greening Project and providing a grant to sustain the garden. If you are interested in helping or wish to make a financial contribution to the garden please contact Shirley or the CCI office.

We had Comedian Rabbi Robert Alper come to CCI on Sunday evening, May 21. This was a fun evening for all. I highly recommend Rabbi Alper's book "Thanks I Needed That", that I bought and read in two days!

The Yom Hashoah service led by Rabbi Klensin last month was very moving. For the occasion we brought out the Holocaust Sefer Torah. This is one of the Torahs saved from the Nazis during World War II, 1939-1945, from desolated Jewish communities of Moravia, Slovakia, and Bohemia, cared for by the Czech Government and obtained by CCI from Westminster Synagogue, London, England, in 1964. There is a plaque dedicating this Torah on the Sanctuary wall for more information. That we still worship with this Sefer Torah is a tribute to those millions of Jewish men, women, and children who perished in the holocaust. May their memory be forever a blessing.

Sincerely,
 Robin Lewis Brigmon
 President

Rabbinic Reflections

I recently attended the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism's biennial Consultation on Conscience in Washington, D.C. This intensive program included presentations on a whole range of social justice issues including immigration, Israel, human trafficking, genocide, the budget, and education. The Consultation opened with a presentation by U.N. Ambassador Susan Rice in conversation with URJ President Rabbi Rick Jacobs. During the next two days we heard from Senators and Representatives from both parties, along with members of the Administration and various organizations. Our discussions were always introduced with an explanation of how our Jewish values and responsibilities connected with the issues to be discussed. We talked about how our efforts to make this a more just and compassionate society require both advocacy, to influence policy, and action, to help others on an individual or community level.

Our "Be the Match" drive between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur to register potential bone marrow donors was a very important example of taking action in our own community in a way that can benefit individuals wherever they may live. Our ongoing collection of food for Golden Harvest allows us to help people in our own community, as does the Smart Kid Smart Lunch program in which we will be participating again this summer. (See page 5 for more information.)

By writing, emailing and calling our local, state, and national lawmakers, we can make a difference in legislation that is under consideration, legislation that can determine the future well being of our country and all who live here. See the Religious Action Center's website (rac.org) for background information on many issues on which our movement has taken a stand.

It is my Jewish values and the long-standing focus of Reform Judaism on Tikun Olam, repairing our world, that encourage my participation in the Interfaith Fellowship of Augusta, the Progressive Religious Coalition, the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee on Race Relations, the Georgia Campaign for Adolescent Power and Potential, and Planned Parenthood, as well as the panels on which I have served at Paine College and the Medical School, and hosting church and school groups at our synagogue to expose others to Judaism. Just recently I took part in a Service for Healing of the Mind and Spirit for those touched by mental illness, as well as for health care providers and care givers. On Monday, May 13, I will serve on a panel discussing "Faith and Family." I hope you will join us for this interfaith discussion which is described below.

It is so important, especially in a community like Augusta, that we share our Jewish values with others, both through discussion and action.

On Tuesday evening, May 14, the night after the panel discussion on Faith and Family, we will have our Shavuot Eve Service at 7:30 PM. I hope you will join us at the Temple to celebrate this less well known, but very important, Jewish holiday celebrating the Revelation at Mt. Sinai. We will read the Ten Commandments from the Torah, commandments which teach us to have faith in God, but, for the most part, focus on our relationships with others. We are reminded where our Jewish values come from and the importance of doing our part to bring closer the Messianic Age.

Rabbi Robert Klensin

"FAITH AND FAMILY"

A panel discussion sponsored by the Interfaith Fellowship of Augusta

Monday May 13, 6:30 to 8:30 pm
Islamic Society of Augusta
465 Old Evans Road, Martinez 30907

All are welcome to join us in open and respectful conversation. We will explore what our sacred texts teach concerning family, and how our traditions interpret these texts today.

Panelists will include representatives of various faith traditions.

Please dress modestly.

Light refreshments will be served.

RSVP: 706-210-5030

Last summer Congregation Children of Israel helped Smart Lunch, Smart Kids serve nearly 13,000 lunches to 1,500 children throughout Augusta. Action Ministries is preparing for the second year of this important statewide child nutrition initiative starting June 2013. We will be making the packages at the Temple this year.

HOW CAN YOU BECOME INVOLVED IN SMART LUNCH, SMART KIDS PROGRAM!

Volunteers can join together to make and package sandwiches on Sunday mornings at 10:30 AM throughout the summer, or deliver the meals on Mondays.

Your help will be very much appreciated however many times you can join us, whether it is only once or several times during the summer.

Contact: Ila Abramovitz (706-738-5734 or ilaabram@aol.com)
or Rabbi Klensin (706-736-3140 or rabbi@cciaugusta.org)
for more information and to join this effort.

HERE IS HOW WE CAN HELP GET READY FOR JUNE!

- Bring your donations of any of the following items and put them in the Smart Box located just inside the Temple entrance: Ziploc Sandwich Bags, Salty Snacks (individually packaged), Juice Boxes/Bottle Water, Books (appropriate for ages preschool - 12th grade), Fruit Snacks (individually packaged dried fruit, rollups, applesauce cup, etc.), Peanut Butter & Jelly (non-breakable jars).
- Make a monetary donation to help us buy the items needed to be able to make 400 packages a week (to make each lunch costs $2.90. Make check out to the Temple and put SMART LUNCH, SMART KIDS (in the memo field).

You will be making a real difference in the lives of children in our community.

RELIGIOUS PRACTICES

Tot Shabbat

Our special Shabbat for young children and their families

Tot Shabbat May 18, 10:00 AM

Beginning June 7th, we will be switching to our summer schedule for Services: nosh at 5:45 PM followed by Shabbat Service at 6:15. This means that our Family Shabbat Dinner on the first Friday of each month will follow the Service at about 7:30. We will have “kid friendly” menus during the summer. With the early start of the Intergenerational Service and Shabbat Dinner, I encourage all our families with children to attend and participate. I look forward to seeing all of you starting in June.

Please help us fill the bins in the entrance area (just outside the office) with non-perishable goods. Just think what we can accomplish if we all bring one item each time we come to the temple.

I encourage all of you to contact me if you would like to participate on the Religious Practices Committee or with any questions/suggestions you have.

SISTERHOOD NEWS Jeanie Brody, President

Sisterhood will be having their donor luncheon on Sunday,

May 5, 2013

11:30 AM

We will be having two speakers from Hilton Head, South Carolina, who are both members of Congregation Beth Yam and active in WRJ.

Raffle ticket sales for the restaurant raffle are really doing well. Remember the annual meeting has been moved to Sunday, June 2, 2013 at which time the winner will be announced. The winner receives a $60.00 gift certificate to each of the following restaurants: Calvert's, Bonefish, Sheehan's, Chop House, and Five O'Clock Bistro. Each raffle ticket costs only $25 so be sure to purchase at least one and maybe more to increase your chances of winning.

The Judaica Collection has gift items for confirmation, graduation, and other occasions so be sure to stop in.

Jeanie Brody President

BROTHERHOOD NEWS Arthur Miller, President

During the past year the Brotherhood has run some very successful events. We hope that next year will be even better. For this we need your input.

First we would like to depart from what we have done in the past. We are asking our membership to step up to the plate and nominate our new leadership. We hope that you who have children will become our new leaders.

We established the Ralph Abramovitz Fund when the Brotherhood was revived over 20 years ago. There are many things that can be done:

Family picnics that focus on sports competition between young and old alike:

Encourage (the non-team) sports such as bicycle riding, roller skating, jump rope, etc. I am sure that you as parents can suggest other events. The Brotherhood can assist financially.

How many of you realize that the Temple has a lending library? We are in need of current books and material that will interest you and our young folks. Please donate any such material with a Jewish theme to our library.

Work has already begun on the refurbishing of the Men's Room. We are looking for volunteers with painting skills. Please submit your name and phone number. We will contact you.

Payment of your dues is always in order Please send your check to the Temple office today.

Basic membership-$36.00
Maccabee membership - $54.00
Aaron membership $72.00
David membership $90.00
Moses membership $108.00

Additional donations are appreciated

RUMMAGE SALE

The Annual Rummage Sale will take place
Sundays, July 14th and July 21st
Remember your trash is somebody's treasure!

Please help us by donating what you no longer need or want. We are now accepting items. Items can be dropped off at the Temple

Mon-Fri from 9am to 12pm

We are also looking for volunteers to help organize and price items before the sale as well as volunteers to work the rummage sale.

Contact the Temple office or Ila Abramovitz with any questions or to volunteer.

Shalom to All:

We are at the end of our 2012-2013 AJCSS year. The final schedule is as follows:

May 5 - Regular AJCSS

May 12 - B & B; Closing Activities to include a CCI Brotherhood for Mother's Day Celebration - Mother's eat free

May 19 - End of Year Event (change due to keeping cost and travel down) - Students voted on 'ADVENTURE CROSSING' in Augusta GA! Details will follow!!

Please let families with Sunday school age children know about our Augusta Jewish Community Sunday school program. We want to thank our teachers, rabbis, madrichim, Oversight Committee, and the Goldring Woldenberg Institute of Southern Jewish Life (ISJL) fellow Reva Frankel for making our year so enjoyable.

It has been a WONDERFUL year for all involved - concerts, fellow coordinated events, Jewish learning, field trip to Columbia SC, Parent's Meetings, outdoors outings, and end of year 'ADVENTURE CROSSING FUN DAY'. Take a look at a few pictures from our classes:

Become part of our tradition of excellence. Please call me if you have any questions!!
 Thanks!

L'hitraot - until later,
 Elliot Price, Principal

Through the years, all that's changed is our ability to do even more.

Elliot Sons Funeral Home has proudly served the community for over 100 years.

From the beginning, our goal has been to do as much as we can to help families, neighbors and friends through their deepest sorrows. Our affiliation with the Dignity Memorial® network allows us to build on that tradition by offering many exclusive benefits. As a result, we're finding that more and more people are turning to us to help them plan their final arrangements. To learn more about the helpful services we offer, call or visit any of our funeral homes.
