PAST PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I would like to thank all of you that made Purim and the Congregational Passover Seder a success. The "Temple Players" led by Joanne Greene worked hard practicing this year's spiel and it showed. GREAT job folks!! As for the Congregational Seder, you can probably guess that it takes months of planning to bring it together. The Religious Practices Committee led by Steve Nathan did an exceptional job. For those that may not know, it took ordering and picking up food, arranging a caterer, setting up the Friedman Social Hall, and overseeing preparation in the kitchen. Between Ila's coordination efforts and the Sisterhood Ladies set-up work, this was destined to be a success. And our Rabbi continues to bring his special touch making our services educational and meaningful. I truly appreciate all who take part in making our holiday celebrations memorable.

Our Annual Casino Night Fundraiser exceeded all expectations! I would like to thank Marjorie Steiner and her Team for their hard work. Specifically, Rachel Ray, Elyse Kronowski, David and Meryl Alalof, Jeanie Brody, Cynthia Eiring, Michael Scharff, Ila Abramovitz, and the Sisterhood Ladies. Additionally, Marjorie developed a lessons learned package and checklist to help insure success for future events. This is our key fundraiser and it takes everyone's efforts, especially selling tickets - please choose to help make it a bigger success next year!

As an update, the inaugural Celebration of Faith and Justice program was postponed due to the great ice storm of 2014. We are very interested in this event and hope to host it during the fall. More to come!!

In closing, I would like to thank you for allowing me to serve as your Congregational President for the past year. In leaving, I believe we have made some real progress this year, but I ask that each and every one of you please consider the following: gossip is hurtful and divisive - so is negative expression - think before you speak or write that email and always act to understand BEFORE being understood. Act in ways that are respectful and bring together not divide our Congregation. We have a legacy to be proud of and it is our responsibility to help it flourish. It's about the health and future of the Congregation and we can all help with that!!

Shalom,

Jack P Goldenberg
 President, May 2013—May 2014

NEW PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am humbled to be elected President of CCI. I look forward to working with everyone on the Board of Trustees as well as Rabbi Klensin, and continuing our past presidents' legacy of commitment to the Temple. I also look forward to working and meeting with all of you in the upcoming year where we can discuss our ideas while respecting opinions, speak without gossiping and act in positive ways. This upcoming year is a special year for us; a year of opportunities. I hope that everyone takes advantage of these opportunities to become more involved in the Temple, either at services, our many upcoming social events, charitable activities, fundraisers and more. I am very excited about the creative ideas and events planned for this new year. While we will miss Rabbi Klensin performing many Shabbat Services throughout the year as he begins his remaining year as a part time Rabbi, this does provide us the opportunity to engage and observe many lay leaders. I hope that any of you that are interested in leading services attend Rabbi Klensin's classes in August and assist the congregation by providing guidance for our future rabbinical search. I am proud to be a member of Congregation Children of Israel and believe that, with everyone's commitment and assistance, this congregation will remain strong and be united as one.

Let us remember Adonai's words to Moses in Exodus, "Speak to the children of Israel that they shall take donation for Me. You shall take My donation from every person whose heart will move them." [Exodus 25:1-2]. Let us all take this year's opportunities to donate our time and skills to make our Temple the place we all envision it can be, a place we want to spend more time celebrating our days in, a place we can leave feeling invigorated, and a place we can call home. And, when Moses spoke to Aaron in Leviticus, "That is what Adonai spoke saying 'I shall be made holy through those who are close to Me and I shall be honored in front of all the people'." [Leviticus 10:3]. If it is when we are close to God that we honor Him, and gain wisdom through reverence of God, let us do so together, and work to uplift each other as we reach towards Adonai, our God.

Respectfully,
Rachel Ray
 Incoming President

RABBINIC REFLECTIONS

As I think we are all aware, our relationships within the broader community are vitally important. Each fall and spring all first year students at GRU Summerville Campus in the required introduction to humanities classes visit Congregation Children of Israel, as well as the Hindu temple and the Islamic Center. I cherish that opportunity to give these students a better understanding of Jews and Judaism. Many church groups come to visit, some for a Friday evening service, others to meet with me at a different time. I currently serve as president of the Progressive Religious Coalition of Augusta and am on the steering committee of the Interfaith Fellowship of Augusta, I participate annually on panels at Paine College and at the Medical School and am a member of a group working to prevent teen pregnancy in our community. I spend time with these interfaith activities, not just because of my own commitment to bettering interfaith relations, but because these relationships are very important to us as a Jewish community.

I had intended to include the following letter from the Islamic Society of Augusta in my May newsletter article, but as it turned out we did not send out a newsletter in May. Although it has been a while since the letter was written, I believe the contents of this letter are still worth sharing as an expression of unity and support that says far more than one specific act of violence against our community.

“Dear Rabbi Klensin,

The crimes committed on April 13, 2014 at the Jewish Community Center of Greater Kansas City and Village Shalom in Overland, Kansas sadden us, and we are writing to express to you and your community’s members our sympathy and solidarity.

“If there is any event in which we can participate to demonstrate these feelings, please inform us. If there is anything that we can do, please let us know.

“The Islamic Society of Augusta reaffirms its commitment to preserving the freedoms which make our lives as members of minority religious communities possible. It also recognizes its responsibility to advocate against the false rhetoric which blames widespread social problems on one religious or ethnic group or class and claims that violence against this group is appropriate.

“Sincerely,

Taufiq Lakhany, President, Islamic Society of Augusta Jamal Daoudi, Imam, Islamic Society of Augusta”

As we have responded with concern and support when other groups have been attacked, it is gratifying to receive this letter from the Islamic community. Taking it a step further, the leadership of the Islamic Society has requested a time when some of the members of their community can attend one of our Shabbat Services, so they can learn more about us and Judaism.

I want to offer my congratulations to Rachel Ray and all the other officers and new trustees of Congregation Children of Israel, our Brotherhood, Sisterhood and Youth Group. I look forward to working with all of them during the coming year.

I hope that all of you who are reading this newsletter will join us on Friday evening, June 13, when our Temple leadership will be formally installed. Your support for them by attending the installation, and throughout the year, is vital for the well being of our congregation.

As some of you know, I was hospitalized briefly in late April and spent some time recovering. Francine and I very much appreciate the support and understanding of the temple leadership, and of so many of you who were aware of my health difficulties. I thank you for the meals, calls, emails, cards and prayers. I am doing much better now and returning to my normal activities.

Rabbi Robert Klensin

We can thank our teachers, rabbis, madrichim, Oversight Committee, and the Goldring Woldenberg Institute of Southern Jewish Life (ISJL) fellow Sam Kahan for making our year such a positive Jewish learning experience.

It has been a WONDERFUL year for all involved - concerts, model Seders, Soup Kitchen, Parent's Meetings, giving our Tzedakah to needy causes, Israeli Dancing, and end of year program to 'Splash in the Boro'. Take a look at some of the pictures:

LIFE LONG JEWISH LEARNING

BEGINNING HEBREW READING FOR ADULTS

rather than always following along in the transliteration?

Now is your chance!

No prior Hebrew knowledge required.

Shabbat Morning Service And Talmud Study

Beginning August 16, we will return to our schedule of having a brief Shabbat morning service, followed by Talmud study on most Saturday mornings.

LEARN TO LEAD SERVICES OR JUST TO BETTER UNDERSTAND HEBREW PRAYER

At times when we come to a service on Friday evening, it may seem like we are just reciting one nice prayer after another, in no particular order. In fact, the order of the prayers included in our Shabbat, Holiday, and weekday services was set down in the Mishneh, some 1800 years ago. The prayerbook is called a "Siddur" in Hebrew - related to the word "Seder" on Passover, when we relate, in order, the events of the Exodus.

As was announced some months ago, Rabbi Klensin will be working half time during the coming year, leading Shabbat Services approximately twice each month. The other services will be led by members of the congregation. If you would like to lead a service yourself, or together with another member, here is your opportunity to learn how to do so. This three session class will be offered in August on Tuesday evenings, beginning on August 5. While you will need to know some Hebrew, most Friday evenings, many of the Hebrew prayers will be led by the soloist. Contact Rabbi Klensin if you would like to participate in these classes.

Even if you have no interest in leading services, learning about the meaning and messages of ancient and modern prayers can make your attendance and participation in the services more meaningful, bringing you closer to our Jewish past

Looking Ahead: Sunday evening, September 7

Guest Lecturer: Dr. Joel M. Hoffman

will discuss his forthcoming book:

"The Bible's Cutting Room Floor: The Holy Scriptures Missing from Your Bible,"

As the title suggests, the book addresses the fascinating stories and lessons that were cut from the Bible: the second half of the Adam and Eve story, Abraham's childhood, the mysterious Watchers, Mordecai's serpent dream, and much more. The book also covers ancient lessons about good and evil, about suffering and celebration, and about God's role in our lives.

The restaurant raffle was very successful. The winner of the five gift certificates, for $60.00 each, was Sandy Helling. The restaurants were Bonefish, Carrabba's, French Market Grille, Calvert's, and T-Bonz.

Our Donor Dinner was held on May 21, 2014, with a delicious dinner catered by The Silver Palm. Dr. Murray Freedman gave an informative talk which contained humor as well. This year's woman of the year was Cathy Goldenberg. We apologize that the following names were omitted from the Donor Program and Sisterhood would like to thank them for their support;

Sponsor: Sandy Nachman

Donor: Meryl Alalof, Jill Korn,

Susan Salisbury, Kathy Rafoth

and Sarah Bobrow-Williams

On April 25, 2014 we lost Suzanne Shapiro, a long time Sisterhood officer, Temple employee, and congregant. She was a dedicated and hard working member of our Sisterhood. We need to find someone to fill her position as treasurer. Suzanne will be greatly missed.

Through the years, all that's changed is our ability to do even more.

Elliot Sons Funeral Home has proudly served the community for over 100 years. From the beginning, our goal has been to do as much as we can to help families, neighbors and friends through their deepest sorrows. Our affiliation with the Dignity Memorial® network allows us to build on that tradition by offering many exclusive benefits. As a result, we're finding that more and more people are turning to us to help them plan their final arrangements. To learn more about the helpful services we offer, call or visit any of our funeral homes.
